Speculation in local grain was based on the weather reports yesterday. Trading was only moderate so far as futures were concerned, though there was a good cash demand throughout the session. The principal bullish factor was reported frost and generally lower temperature. Local receipts were small, and there was good milling demand for nearly all grades in sight. Buying was brisk early in the session, and values were well maintained, despite profit-taking by small traders.

LIVE STOCK MARKET. Native Cattle Scarce-Beef Prices

Steady-Hogs Close Higher.

NATIVE CATTLE-About twice the run of a week ago was available in the native division the big end of which was made up of several cars of Western steers that sold at steady prices. The week's trade was molerate in volume, with no strictly choice offerings available. Trade was quiet on the bulk of the kind on sale and generally reported uneven by the majority of salesmen, with a report of steady on anything strictly choice, and unevenly lower on all grades below $1.4 down to $4.50, while anything below the latter price was in dispute and called anywhere from lower to stronger than a week ago. Whatever the conclusions it remains that there was no particular life to the trade as a rule.

Beef Steers, 1.200 to 1.600 Pounds-Steers averaging 1.500 to 1.600 lbs. sold at $65.80, the bulk of sales at $66.80. The quality was fair and the weights ranged from 1.30 to 1.600 hb.
